

TDH:2

2nd September, 1952.

MEMORANDUM:WATER POSSIBILITIES ON PROPERTY OF J. CULLEN
OYSTER COVE

This property is situated up the hill from the old Oyster Cove Jetty. The whole area of the farm is underlain by hard, flat-lying, siliceous Permian Mudstone. I have informed Mr. Cullen that the chances of obtaining underground water supplies are exceedingly remote and discussed surface water conservation with him.

(Sgd.) Terence D. Hughes

GEOLOGIST

The Director of Mines,
HOBART. Tasmania.