

UR 1957/172

HGWK/2

4th September, 1957

MEMORANDUMDICTIONARIES

The various dictionaries mentioned in my memorandum of 29th August are not frequently required. It is only occasionally that their need arises and it is a fact that officers will forego the information in preference to borrowing from the Public Library.

While the routine of borrowing from the Library is being observed, the necessity for the information has passed.

As the total cost of these publications is probably less than six pounds the library would benefit by their inclusion.

(H.G.W. Keid)
CHIEF GEOLOGIST

The Director of Mines,
Department of Mines,
HOBART.