

Distribution of mapped values indicates increasing organic content of Latrobe delta-front sediments toward the margins of the Latrobe depositional basin.