

216010

rock shale package to be present within the Paleocene/Cretaceous section. It also calls for the presence of early formed structures sealed in a timely manner by surroundings and overlying shales. Available data indicate that these requirements are present in certain areas of Permit T-16-P.