

Deconvolution, gain, migration and filter were applied after stack as described in the previous paragraph.

Three lines (BB85-4,8 and 12) were found to have very strong linear noise, which was removed by multi-channel filter prior to migration. Lines BB85-20,26 and 28 were also migrated with FK migration algorithm to provide a better handling of steep events.