

9. Additional exploratory drilling is unwarranted because of the lack of older structures within the three Bass Basin licenses, the high probability that these structures or younger structures are gas prone, and that gas reserves are subeconomic and unmarketable.