

A more detailed palynologic investigation of the sample gaps and indeterminate zones encompassing the unconformities in the Anglesea-1, Nerita-1 and Snail-1 wells are needed to improve the validity of the regional interpretation presented here.