

only 8% of fragments are non-basaltic, extraneous and are the product of mixing with cuttings from overlying strata.