

5. EVALUATION

Electric logs were run over the interval 268 to 3104 metres and sidewall cores were shot between 934 and 3104 metres. Log analysis showed no significant hydrocarbons and the well was plugged and abandoned.