

5800-5910

Core No. 10

Mudstone (shale): medium greyish blue-green, dense, faintly banded by silty streaks (dip $5^{\circ}\pm$). Highly fractured with common vertical fractures filled by soft, white, non-calcareous mineral which also is common along bedding planes. Hydrothermally altered (zones of mottled light green) and commonly pyritic.

No OSCF.