

- In the T91-2 gazettal area, overpressured shales possibly exist due to the generation and expulsion of hydrocarbons (Fig 3). However, both the effects of inversion and an inability to dewater, may also lead to overpressuring throughout the region.