

need of base load electricity generation; a potentially large and easily serviced market.

Government royalties are 10% and there are no other relevant petroleum taxes or royalties.

Although Government policy is to limit foreign investment to 50% at the production stage there are many instances of production licences being granted with more than 50% foreign equity. (e.g. NW Shelf, Dongara, Woodada).