

- Government attitude to major road development in rain forest north of Main Creek
- availability of large quantities of non-acid forming waste rock for road building
- final means of transporting product from mine (truck or pipeline)

Of the two possible routes, this writer currently favours the Corinna Road route with a bridge over Main Creek.