

009

Since a very large amount of drilling would be necessary to bring the reliability of Block 5 up to that of the other four blocks it might be worth while to consider the possibility of conducting a mining operation on blocks 1 through 4 and the Lochaber Lead. This would eliminate much of the ground that has mining depths of over 130 ft.

Dr. J. C. Standard.
July, 1971.