

some veins. These particular workings have not as yet been uncovered.

Alluvial gold workings are extensive in Lynch and Specimen creeks, and, in some places, the hills are covered by shallow, infilled pits.