

U28

The general area to the north and west of here contains poor outcrops of variable calc-silicate rocks and skarns, largely covered by what is probably only a thin veneer of basalt or basalt soil. See later I.P., magnetics, soil geochemical results. This area may have thicker mineralized skarns and warrants further investigations by costeaning/drilling.