

5. A broad geophysically anomalous zone centred on line 6N (75W-75E) was located. Further work is required (i.e. geology, geochemistry) to delineate its potential.

References

- Howland-Rose, A. W. (1975) - A Report on Gradient Array E.I.P., Schlumberger Electrical Soundings and Mercury Spectrometer (Soil) Surveys over Three Areas of Mt. Tyndall on behalf of the Mount Lyell Mining and Railway Company Limited Scintrex Report No. Tas-025.
- McPhar (1968) - Report of the Further Induced Polarisation and Resistivity Surveys in the Mt. Tyndall Area, Tasmania for The Mount Lyell Mining and Railway Company Limited.
- Reid, K. O. et al (1979) - E.L. 9/66 Annual Report 1978/79, Mount Lyell Company Report.