

The following work is recommended:

1. Excavate costeans across the main Pb-Zn-(Cu) soil anomalies on Voyager 3 to relate the soil geochemistry to geology. Drill the most favourable target which develops.
2. Grid the area of arenaceous sediments to the north of Voyager 3 and collect C horizon soil samples at a close density across the inferred contact.