EXPLORATION LICENCE 5/81

Final Report to the Tasmanian Department of Mines

00

Period 13/5/83 to 1/9/82.

1.

INTRODUCTION

Australian Anglo American Prospecting Limited (AAA) and the Triako group of companies are exploring the Ringarooma Valley and the Great Northern Plain for alluvial tin deposits, under a Joint Venture agreement (A.A.A. - Triako Ringarooma Joint Venture). Moruka Tin Pty. Ltd. and Kibuka Mines Pty. Ltd. are members of the Triako group of companies. Amdex Mining Limited is Triako's operating company based at Pioneer, Tasmania. The principal tenements involved in the Joint Venture are:-

Tenement	Company
E.L. 5/81	Australian Anglo American Prospecting Proprietary Limited
E.L. 28/76	Moruka Tin Pty. Ltd.
E.L. 2/77	Kibuka Mines Pty. Ltd.
A.P. 1/80	Kibuka Mines Pty. Ltd.

The location of these tenements is shown on the attached plan. It is intended to investigate these tenements as much as possible as one prospecting entity.

2.

WORK DONE

The geomorphological survey based on the study of Landsat imagery has been completed and reported in the Six Monthly Report for the period 12/11/81 to 12/5/82. This survey, based now on the study of air-photographs, is being continued, but being regional in nature, it has only partial relevance to the E.L. 5/81. When completed. the results of this survey will be reported in our Exploration Reports on surrounding areas.

3. REASONS FOR SURRENDERING THE E.L.

It was intended that two holes would be drilled to test for mineralisation, and to define the profile of the basement of the Tertiary Sediments below the basalt cover near the narrowest width between the Mathinna Beds to the west and the Blue Tier Batholith to the east. However, because of the universal downturn in the fortunes of the mining industry, funds for these holes are not now available, and will not be forthcoming in the foreseeable future. No work other than drilling is envisaged for the E.L., consequently, it is deemed advisable to surrender the tenement.

4. EXPENDITURE

A statutory declaration of the expenditure incurred on work carried out by the A.A.A. - TRIAKO Ringarooma Joint Venture is attached.
