

There has been no recent systematic exploration within the farm-in portion of the CSR tenement for a dolomitic shale hostrock lead-zinc or a carbonate hostrock lead-silver orebody.

CSR work to date has included three test Input EM lines and minor coverage by Dighem. The input traverses have indicated that the area is suitably resistive, however no anomalies were observed within the prospective horizon. No results have been obtained from the Dighem survey.