

and will be presented with full interpretation in the next six monthly progress report.

A detailed ground magnetic survey of the three gridded areas was postponed due to equipment malfunction.