

013

(viii) Investigation into the lead isotopic character of mineralization and geochemical anomalies of the Elliott Bay area.

The field work was carried out by a team of upto three geologists, one geophysicist, two geophysical observers and upto eight field assistants operating from the Wart Hill Base Camp.

Acknowledgement for geological mapping and interpretation is due to:

|                |   |   |
|----------------|---|---|
| P.A. Wilson    | - | Voyager 9 and south eastern areas of IP grid.       |
| R.J. Perring   | - | Voyager 24, Voyager 30.Au/Sn drainage sampling. |
| J.M. Pemberton | - | Voyager 33, Voyager 34.                             |

Induced Polarization survey was supervised and interpreted by J.D. Sumpton.