

Campsite - Currie Rivulet/Snake Spur

Eucalypt tea tree regrowth typical of Garfield. View looking north to West Jukes Peak, the scarp is formed of Owen Conglomerate unconformably overlying Cambrian volcanics. The scarp probably represents a complete thickness of Owen, the Gordon Limestone having only been eroded.