

005

The airborne geophysical survey conducted by Dighem Limited detected 82 EM anomalies with a conductor grade of 2 or better (i.e. 75-9 MHOS) (Appendix VI). There were no obvious massive sulphide conductors in the survey area. To date 50 anomalies have been followed-upon the ground. None to date appear to be attributable to significant sulphide mineralisation.