

7.

with an initial 2 hole program targeted on the results from the EM and soil geochemical surveys.

3.4. South Natone

A stream sediment geochemical survey will be conducted over this under-explored area to evaluate the gold mineralization potential. At the same time a "leakage" gold in fracture sampling program will be carried out, in part to assess the effectiveness of this technique in Western Tasmania.