

47

ML 979P/M

TASMANIAN CONSTRUCTION MATERIALS REGISTER

Serial No. 47 Grid Reference 154 667 Map Sheet No 82

Name of Owner/Quarry: R. Rathbone (property owner)

Working Pit/Disused Pit/New Locality: Frequently worked.

Past Production: ≈ 12,000 m³ (latest operation) Estimated Reserves: Large.

Description of site: Bench cut in east west direction in uphill area of old Mt. Nassau quarry.

Limits to expansion: None above present quarry face.

Thickness of overburden: 40-50 cm terra rosa soil

Sources of information: RAAM Field: 14/11/78 Laboratory: _____ Ref. No.: _____

Sizing analysis: _____ Date: _____

mm	76.2	50.8	38.1	25.4	19.0	9.53	4.76	2.36	1.18	0.60	0.425	0.30	0.15	0.075	0.038
1
2
3
4

L.L. _____ P.I. _____ L.S. _____ D.R. _____

Special tests: _____

Group Symbol (unified soil classification system): 1

Geological Description: Blocky limestone

History: Possibly Tasmanias oldest existing quarry. Not used for several decades but recently reopened by Les Hingberg Pty Ltd for use in a base coarse mix & bloemetal.

Remarks: Passed P.W.D tests.

Crushed before use. - Main operation by Hobart Quarries.